

KLAVIERDUO Gröbner - Trisko Johanna - Veronika

Biography Duo

Johanna Gröbner and Veronika Trisko have been performing as a piano duo since 1996.

In this formation, chamber music studies with the Altenberg Trio at the Vienna Conservatory, in 2005 diploma with distinction.

Solo piano studies at the University of Music Vienna with M. Hughes

Master classes with M. Fernandes, Tal & Groethuysen, A. Delle-Vigne and many others.

Winners of many national and international piano duo competitions:

First prizes:

- IBLA Grand Prize Competition (Sicily)
- First Twenty Fingers Piano Duo Competition (Rome)
- Int. Chamber Music Festival Allegro Vivo
- Musica Juventutis (Vienna Konzerthaus)
- Fidelio Competition (Vienna Conservatory)
- Prima La Musica (Austria)

Further prizes:

- ARD-Competition Munich
- Int. Broadcasting Competition Concertino Praga
- Concorso Internazionale Provincia di Caltanissetta
- Grieg-Competition Oslo

Concerts in Austria (Musikverein, Konzerthaus Vienna), Germany (Rosengarten Mannheim, Herkulesaal and Gasteig Munich), Czech Republic (Rudolfinum Prague), Italy (Auditorio della RAI, Torino), Hungary, Norway, Mexico and the USA (Carnegie Hall).

In 2005 performance as soloists with the orchestra of the Vienna Music University.

Chamber music partners are, amongst others, Pavel Vernikov and Cornelia Horak.

The piano duo made its debut at the Carnegie Recital Hall (New York City) in 2006.

Debut at Großer Musikvereinssaal (Vienna) in October 2009, conducted by Pascal Rophé.

Debut with Orchestra Sinfonica della RAI with Luca Pfaff in Torino in 2010.

2010 finalists at ARD Piano Duo-Competition, final concert with Symphonieorchester des Bayerischen Rundfunks, conducted by Christoph Poppen.

ARD - Special prize for the best performance of the commissioned work by Minas Borboudakis.

Several radio and television recordings.