

KLAVIERDUO Grübner - Trisko Johanna - Veronika

Biography Veronika Trisko

Born in Vienna.

First piano and composition lessons at the Yamaha music school.

From 1993 to 2001 junior piano student with Prof. Alma Sauer at the Vienna Music University

Solo piano studies with C. Berner and M. Hughes.

Holder of a scholarship by Bösendorfer.

Répétiteur at the Int. Chamber Music Festival Allegro Vivo.

Winner of many competitions: Special prize at "Gradus ad Parnassum" 2005, 1st Prize at the competition of the "Vienna Master Classes" 2006. Together with Florian Aichinger 1st Prize in chamber music at the Kuhlau - Competition in Üelzen in 2007.

Concerts at the Berlin Philharmonic Hall, master classes with P. Badura-Skoda, A. Delle-Vigne and many others.

Veronika Trisko is accompanist of musicians as Birgit Kolar, with whom she already performed in Japan and South America. She often plays together with Christoph Wimmer, solo double bass at the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra, and Vahid Khadem-Missagh, with whom she performs "Stradivahid".